The main objectives of the Task Force:-

- To examine the existence of child labour in all the units prohibited under the Schedule (Part A-15 occupations and Part B -57 Processes) of the Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986.
- To identify children being employed as bonded labours/domestic workers.
- To rescue all such children and ensure that they attend full time formal schools.
- The District Level Task Force shall meet at least once in a month and shall make a comprehensive action plan for conducting the rescue operation and other actions.

Preparation for Task Force:

- i. The Task Force shall be oriented on the relevant legal instruments to rescue children from work.
- ii. The Task Force shall prepare a block-wise list of units with processes and occupations.
- iii. This list is to include the units in the district headquarters;
- iv. From the list, the Task Force is to mark all those localities on a random basis where it proposes to do the social audit;
- v. At the sub-district level, the Task Force splits into 3-4 groups. Each of these groups would then go to the selected blocks for conducting a social audit. The blocks would be selected by the District Collector on a random basis;
- vi. The Task Force may co-opt a few more members at the block level in consultation with the District Collector.

Conducting of Social Audit:

- i. The Task Force shall visit a production unit everyday for a continuous period of one week at different times. During the day it shall intermittently check the unit for existence of child labour. The Task Force should inspect the premises for child labour during the visit.
- ii. The subsequent visit to the unit shall be planned after a gap of one week; The Task Force shall hold meetings with the community in the neighbourhood of the unit, the local school teachers and the police on the nature and purpose of the social audit and enlist their co-operation;
- iii. It should maintain a diary of the social audit reports;
- iv. The SSP/SP of the District will provide necessary police protection to the Task Force during their field visits.
